

Student Accounts Office

4400 University Drive, MS 2E2, Fairfax, Virginia 22030
Phone: 703-993-2484 Fax: 703-993-2490

Disclosure of Student Account Information

The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) provides privacy protection of a student's educational record and restricts the release of those records without the student's consent. If you, the student, would like the Student Accounts Office to discuss your student account with any person(s) or organization(s), you must complete and return this form to our office.

Student's Authorization to Release Student Account Information

I, _____, authorize the Student Accounts Office at George Mason University to disclose information regarding my student account for the purpose of _____

to the following person(s) and/or organization(s):

Person/Organization Name	Relationship
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

I understand that this disclosure of information will be in effect until I provide a statement revoking authorization or I cease to be a student at George Mason University. I also understand that a signed and dated statement must be submitted to the Student Accounts Office for this release of information to be terminated for any party or parties previously authorized.

Student's Signature

Date

Printed Name

Student ID (G#)

For Student Accounts Office Use Only

Date Received:
Account Commented by (initials):