University tuition is comprehensive and includes funding for instructional programs; as well as academic services, activities and intercollegiate athletics. The fee per semester for full time enrollment is $1488. The fee is allocated in the following manner:

Athletics: The fee supports athletic program operations and sponsors intercollegiate sports.

Auxiliary Services: Self-supporting non-education auxiliary services that support students such as Mail Services, Card Office, EagleBank Arena, and Print Services.

Debt Service: The debt service fee funds projects in support of the University mission, in accordance with University Policy Number 2111. http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/policies/debt-policy/

Facilities/Building: The facility and building fee helps pay for campus buildings.

Health Service: This fee provides for student health services, including a self-supported clinic.

Student Activity: The student activity fee supports the Student Centers, student activity programs, and funds various student activities.

Transportation: The fee is used for self-supported student transportation, such as Mason Shuttles and other commuter initiatives, such as no cost CUE bus service.
