Student Financial Responsibility Agreement

Based on recommendations from the National Association of College and University Business Officers (NACUBO) as well as guidance from the Office of the Attorney General Division of Debt Collection, George Mason University now requires students to acknowledge the financial responsibility agreement each semester.

All students are required to accept George Mason University's Student Financial Responsibility Agreement prior to registering for classes each semester. The agreement outlines financial terms and conditions associated with course registration.

Your registration will not automatically be cancelled for non-attendance or non-payment of charges. If you do not plan to attend the semester, you must drop your registration by the end of the add-drop period per the George Mason University academic calendar. You remain financially responsible for all charges on your account.
